

Information about the Olympic Games

Delta

gestion hôtelière à vocation sociale

Precautions to be taken between July, 15th and September, 9th

The sports events will be held between July, 26th and August, 11th, then between August, 28th and September, 8th

This summer, France hosts the Olympic and Paralympic Games

In Paris and its surrounding,

- Safety areas will be set close to competition venues.
- Therefore, you will need to prepare in advance for any journeys and activities taking place near those venues !

The rules regarding access around the sites where the sports events will take place vary,

You must consult the interactive map in order to know if you live or must travel to an area where traffic is limited

Blue area

No restriction. Motor vehicles must be driven by someone carrying a travel authorization.

Red area

Close to competition venues. Pedestrians allowed. Motor vehicles must be driven by someone carrying a 'Pass jeux'.

Grey area

Competition venues. Motor vehicles forbidden. Only pedestrians carrying a 'Pass jeux' are allowed.

anticiperlesjeux.gouv.fr

Safety areas will be evolving. Refer regularly to the map

Safety areas are mostly located in these towns :

75 : Paris

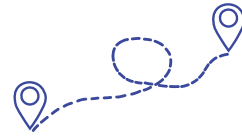

77 : Vaires-sur-Marne

78 : Versailles, Élancourt, Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, Guyancourt

92 : Colombes, Nanterre

93 : Le Bourget, Saint-Denis, Villepinte

JOURNEYS

Make sure you always carry,

Proof of identity

(Id card or copy, residence permit, receipt for renewal of residence permit, Naviga pass, other)

Your housing certificate

(you can request it to the hotel manager, the 115 or your social adviser)

In case of medical appointment, make sure you carry a proof of this appointment

Public transports

Metro (subway) and RER travels will be highly disrupted throughout the Olympic Games. Prepare in advance your journeys : anticiperlesjeux.gouv.fr

Metro stations to avoid

- Gare du Nord
- Châtelet
- La Fourche
- La Motte-Picquet
- Palais Royal Musée du Louvre
- Porte de Saint-Ouen
- Pigalle
- Saint-Lazare
- Miromesnil
- Havre Caumartin
- Madeleine
- Saint-Augustin
- Stade de France
- Carrefour Pleyel

From July, 20th, public transports tickets will be increasing ! Make sure you buy them before this date

Public transports' price increase will not include Navigo subscription (monthly, annual and liberty +)

SOLIDARITY

Some facilities close to competition venues might be closed or relocated including ;

- solidarity associations (legal support, domiciliation...)
- day care centres
- food distributions and solidarity food stores

Check directly with the organisations

Check the Soliguide app

Soliguide

<https://soliguide.fr/fr>

SAFETY

Near the Olympic sites (competitions venues), there will be a significant police presence to monitor various accesses. As millions of people are awaited during the Olympic Games, security will be reinforced. More police searches and controls are to be expected in public spaces and public transports.